

Would you like us to pray with you?

Our Prayer Team is available to pray with you at the end of each service. Just come to the front of the church and someone will be available.

We can arrange a time and place that suits you to pray in private.

We have people in a Prayer Chain who can pray for you or for someone close to you.

Open Doors Prayer Meeting at Thornliebank

OpenDoors

Serving persecuted Christians worldwide

7.30pm in the Session Room on the second Sunday of the month.

Thornliebank Guild

The Guild meet at 2.00pm in the Session Room on Monday afternoon and you are welcome to join them.

The Guild is open to women and men and they run a varied programme with something for everyone and they conclude their meetings with refreshments.

A silhouette of a person kneeling in prayer, with hands clasped, against a dramatic, fiery sunset sky. The person is on the left side of the frame, facing right. The background is a vibrant mix of red, orange, and yellow, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is solemn and spiritual.

Thornliebank's Prayer Meeting is on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of the month.

We next meet in the Session Room at 7.00pm on Thursday evenings to pray and intercede to our Lord.
Please come and join us as we seek God for our direction and growth here in Thornliebank.

The River Service
Our River Service is held on the third Sunday of the month.

We will have a varied programme of praise, prayer, teaching with speakers and other activities.
We look forward to seeing you.

Informal Communion

We will be having informal Communion after the morning service on the first Sunday of the month. Our next formal communion is on 3 March 2019.

CHRISTIAN CARE SINCE 1826

Glasgow City Mission Appeal

We invite you to donate women and men's toiletries for homeless people who use Glasgow City Mission. There will be boxes in the vestibule for donations.

Thornliebank Digital Advocacy Project

Learning to use a mobile phone, tablet or laptop computer can bring many benefits to your life, and can help you stay connected with family & friends.

We have a team of people who are available to help you learn skills that will make using digital devices part of your everyday life.

Please ask Doreen Walker, a member of the Café staff or Mike if you wish to be referred to the digital team for assistance.

House Group

Thornliebank has midweek house-groups where you can gather informally for Bible Study, Prayer and friendship.

If you wish to find out more about house-groups then speak to Mike, Mary Tonner or Fiona Richardson for further details.

You will receive a warm welcome!

Our Bible study group meets at 2.00pm on the first and third Tuesday of the month. We will be starting a new series of studies on Romans on 15th January. You are welcome to join us.

Short Midweek Service

There will be a short midweek service starting at 10.00am on Thursdays before the cafe.

This service will last no longer than 25 minutes and the Refresh Café opens at 10.30am
All Welcome.

healing

We join with our friends from Priesthill for their Healing Service on the first Monday of the month at 7.45pm. This service is a time of Praise, Word, Communion and Prayer and all are welcome.

A photograph of a traditional afternoon tea setting. In the foreground, a white plate holds three scones, each topped with a dollop of white cream and a spread of dark red jam. Behind the scones, a white teapot is partially visible on the left, and a white cup filled with tea sits on a saucer on the right. In the background, a small white dish contains more jam and a pat of butter. The entire scene is set on a white surface.

The Refresh Café is open in the Session Room on Thursday mornings
from 10.30am to 12.30pm.
